

The Pennsylvania Circle of Ancient Philosophy

Second Annual Conference

Villanova University

Driscoll Hall, Room 244

March 15-16, 2014

Keynote Speakers:

Christopher P. Long, Pennsylvania State University

Socrates and the Politics of Finitude: A Reading of the Phaedo

Adriel Trott, Wabash College

What's the Matter? The Politics of Nature in Aristotle's Biology

Book Session:

Aryeh Kosman's The Activity of Being: An Essay on Aristotle's Ontology (Harvard University Press, 2013)

With commentaries from Walter Brogan (Villanova University), Josh Hayes (Alvernia University), and Christopher P. Long (Pennsylvania State University), and a response from Aryeh Kosman.

PCAP aims to foster a community of scholars committed to the study of ancient philosophy. For conference schedule and information about other ancient philosophy events: PennsylvaniaCircleOfAncientPhilosophy.wordpress.org, pennancient@gmail.com